George Peña

Humor, Shits and Songs

Jorge Peña es un cantante de ópera clásica que estudió en la Universidad de Boston y en la Julliard School of Music.
En 1991 George Peña se unió a Club Med Entertainment y viajó por el mundo actuando en producciones de teatro musical que él mismo escribió y produjo. Como consumado cantante, George desarrolló amor por la comedia y decidió trasladarse a Inglaterra para tratar de escribirla. Su éxito lo llevó a España en 1998, donde decidió establecer su hogar. En 2002, George Peña fue invitado a actuar en el Festival de Comedia de Edimburgo donde cautivó al público con su humor, su voz y sus parodias. En los últimos años ha disfrutado de varios George Tours —giras exitosas en Escandinavia, para las audiencias de Suecia y Finlandia—, y continúa trabajando en la producción y interpretación, en exclusiva para Romantic Corporate.

George Peña is a classiacally trained opera singer who studied at Boston University and Julliard school of music.
In 1991 George Peña joined Club Med entertainment and traveled the world performing in musical theater productions that he himself wrote and produced. As an accomplished singer, George developed a love for comedy and decided to move to England and try to write sketch comedy and stand up. His success brought him to Spain in 1998 where George decided to make his permanent home. In 2002, George Peña was invited to perform in the Edinburgh Comedy Festival where he wowed audiences with his original humour that involved using his voice in parodies and song. In recent years George has enjoyed succesful Tours in scandinavia playing to Swedish and Finnish audiences and continues to work in production and performance exclusively with Romantic Corporate.
